No puffed-up, burning, tender, aching feet—no corns or callouses.

"Tiz" makes sore, burning, tired feet fairly dance with delight. Away go the aches and pains, the corns, callouses, blisters, bunions and chilblains. "Tiz" draws out the acids and poisons that puff up your feet. No matter how hard you work, how long you dance, how far you walk, or how long you remain on your feet, "Tiz" brings restful foot comfort. "Tiz" is magical, grand, wonderful for tired, aching, swollen, smarting feet. Ah! how comfortable, how happy you feel. Your feet just tingle for joy; shoes never hurt or seem tight. Get a 25 cent box of "Tiz" now from any drugist or department store. End foot torture forever—wear smaller shoes, keep your feet fresh, sweet and happy. Just think! a whole year's foot comfort for only 25 cents.—Adv.

"Civilization," at the Park, Thrilling World Spectacle

A SCENE FROM CIVILIZATION
Thomas H. Ince's Colossal Film Production Still Drawing Thousands.

"Civilization" at the Park Theatre, Columbus Circle, continues to draw audiences of undiminished size. There are many reasons for this. The film, of spectacle, whichever reader may choose to term it, is something more than an entertainment, although if you so simply regard it, it will give you two hours of thrills, excitement, and here and there will provoke a smile. But Mr. Ince's costly and labor-

ously executed spectacle is vastly more than this. In a sense, it is a world in miniature, for it takes a world theme for its scenario. Somewhat daringly the producer, Mr. Ince, calls it the Bible visualized, or rather that part of the Bible, in the New Testament, which indicates the lessons of brotherly love. Quite fairly it may be said that this film is in a class by itself. Here and there you might find people who say that they like the sensational parts where the submarine attacks the great ocean liner, and then you have others who like the thrills of carnage. Others again admire the way the child is introduced by way of contrast to the grim parts of the picture. But the great majority of people who have been moved to take a serious view of life by the direful happenings in Europe are appreciative of the picture as a whole. The scenes have the touch of a master. Ince is a producer who works on a 20,000-acre stage, with armies of aides, and dozens of assistant directors. But chief of his assets is the knowledge gained from years of experience in the motion picture field.

NEW "MIDNIGHT FROLIC" IN ZIEGFELD SERIES HAS MANY NOVELTIES

The new Ziegfeld "Midnight Frolic" went on display atop the New Amsterdam Theatre last night and proved to be the most elaborate of the series, now numbering four. Gene Buck and Dave Stamper wrote it. New Wayburn staged it and Joseph Urban designed the scenery, which is beautiful to behold. In all nineteen numbers constitute the program, at least fifteen being brand new.

Novelties abound in the show. Especially new are the two numbers in which the girls appear with genuine collies, astely trained and enthusiastically active, and with sleigh bells, which they play by lying on the floor and shaking their legs. Individual hits are made in the new show by Eddie Cantor, a blackface comedian with a genuine sense of humor; Milla, who gives imitations; Peggy Brooks, an English girl with a double voice; Adelaide Bell, a dancer, and Lucy Gillette, who juggles everything she can lay her hands on. All these are newcomers to the "Frolic." Many of the chorus girls are new and all are pretty and attractively gowned. The music is extremely catchy.

Women to-day evince an astonishing knowledge of furniture values. Possibly that is why they prefer to buy at HOLZWASSER'S. Yet, as one of our patrons expressed it the other day: "It's a good thing to know where to come when you DON'T know furniture, and we have always found that yours is one house in New York that we can absolutely depend upon." We like to hear these compliments from our customers who have traded with us for years, because we know their praise is both disinterested and genuine. For 25 years we have striven to establish this confidence. Let us show you how well we have succeeded.

Various Forms Of Headache

"It is necessary in order to treat headache properly to understand the causes which produce the affection," says Dr. J. W. Ray, of Brooklyn, Ala. Continuing he says, "Physicians cannot even begin the treatment of disease without knowing what causes give rise to it, and we must remember that headache is to be treated according to the same rule. We must not only be particular to give a remedy intended to counteract the cause which produces the headache, but we must also give a remedy to relieve the pain until the cause of the trouble has been removed. To answer this purpose, anti-kamnia tablets will be found a most convenient and satisfactory remedy. One tablet every one to three hours gives comfort and rest in the most severe cases of headache, neuralgia and particularly the headaches of women." When we have patient subjects regular attacks of sick headache, we should caution him to keep his bowels regular, for which nothing is better than "Anti-kamnia," and when he feels the least sign of an oncoming attack, he should take two A-K Tablets. Such patients should always be instructed to carry a few anti-kamnia tablets, as to them they are ready for instant use. These tablets are prompt in action and can be depended on to produce relief in a very few minutes. Ask for A-K Tablets. Anti-kamnia tablets at all druggists.—Adv.
